

SULLIVAN'S GREAT FIGHT WITH BRITT MAKES HIM RING FACTOR

Washington Boy Is Now in a Position to Challenge the Winner of the Gans-Nelson Contest—Some Pugilists Have Acquired Great Wealth, but Nearly All Die Poor—John Morrissey the Croesus of the Ring.

"Kid" Sullivan's clever fight with James Egan and Britt at Woodward's Pavilion in California Friday night gave to the light-weight division another aspirant for honors. The boy from the national capital showed a good deal of cleverness and good punching power and an ability to take a wallop that the Frisco sports do not suspect him of.

With a bit more experience and ring culture Sullivan is bound to make his mark. He has the stamina, the courage, and the fact that he went twenty rounds with Britt and that he can still well over a long and arduous route and before a hostile crowd.

Battling Nelson's best fight was his defeat at the hands of Britt, which made him a contender for some consideration, for he is a scrapper of no mean ability.

Before the fight of Sullivan and Gans, the light-weight title in greater measure, Britt, Nelson, Sullivan and Gans are very evenly matched, and any one of the quartet has a right to challenge for the title.

Of course, Gans holds the honor, but does Britt give to him? When he was at that Jimmy lost to Gans on a foul, and at a time when it appeared as though he had been down and out, and Nelson and Sullivan fought great battles against the Prize of the Coast.

The condition now is somewhat equivalent to the one that prevailed when Jack McAuliffe and Jim Corbett both claimed to the title and each with much pretense.

McAuliffe finally won it after a terrific fight.

A glance at the careers of the great ring gladiators of the past shows the truth of the assertion that fighters, no matter what money they may have accumulated during the period of their success, generally die penniless. Not only the fickle fate, fortune, ceased to smile upon them, but the temptation of a journey, but their purses were often emptied by the desertion of friends and the loss of their money.

After the fight of Sullivan and Gans, the light-weight title in greater measure, Britt, Nelson, Sullivan and Gans are very evenly matched, and any one of the quartet has a right to challenge for the title.

Of course, Gans holds the honor, but does Britt give to him? When he was at that Jimmy lost to Gans on a foul, and at a time when it appeared as though he had been down and out, and Nelson and Sullivan fought great battles against the Prize of the Coast.

The condition now is somewhat equivalent to the one that prevailed when Jack McAuliffe and Jim Corbett both claimed to the title and each with much pretense.

McAuliffe finally won it after a terrific fight.

A glance at the careers of the great ring gladiators of the past shows the truth of the assertion that fighters, no matter what money they may have accumulated during the period of their success, generally die penniless. Not only the fickle fate, fortune, ceased to smile upon them, but the temptation of a journey, but their purses were often emptied by the desertion of friends and the loss of their money.

After the fight of Sullivan and Gans, the light-weight title in greater measure, Britt, Nelson, Sullivan and Gans are very evenly matched, and any one of the quartet has a right to challenge for the title.

Of course, Gans holds the honor, but does Britt give to him? When he was at that Jimmy lost to Gans on a foul, and at a time when it appeared as though he had been down and out, and Nelson and Sullivan fought great battles against the Prize of the Coast.

The condition now is somewhat equivalent to the one that prevailed when Jack McAuliffe and Jim Corbett both claimed to the title and each with much pretense.

McAuliffe finally won it after a terrific fight.

A glance at the careers of the great ring gladiators of the past shows the truth of the assertion that fighters, no matter what money they may have accumulated during the period of their success, generally die penniless. Not only the fickle fate, fortune, ceased to smile upon them, but the temptation of a journey, but their purses were often emptied by the desertion of friends and the loss of their money.

After the fight of Sullivan and Gans, the light-weight title in greater measure, Britt, Nelson, Sullivan and Gans are very evenly matched, and any one of the quartet has a right to challenge for the title.

Of course, Gans holds the honor, but does Britt give to him? When he was at that Jimmy lost to Gans on a foul, and at a time when it appeared as though he had been down and out, and Nelson and Sullivan fought great battles against the Prize of the Coast.

The condition now is somewhat equivalent to the one that prevailed when Jack McAuliffe and Jim Corbett both claimed to the title and each with much pretense.

McAuliffe finally won it after a terrific fight.

A glance at the careers of the great ring gladiators of the past shows the truth of the assertion that fighters, no matter what money they may have accumulated during the period of their success, generally die penniless. Not only the fickle fate, fortune, ceased to smile upon them, but the temptation of a journey, but their purses were often emptied by the desertion of friends and the loss of their money.

After the fight of Sullivan and Gans, the light-weight title in greater measure, Britt, Nelson, Sullivan and Gans are very evenly matched, and any one of the quartet has a right to challenge for the title.

Of course, Gans holds the honor, but does Britt give to him? When he was at that Jimmy lost to Gans on a foul, and at a time when it appeared as though he had been down and out, and Nelson and Sullivan fought great battles against the Prize of the Coast.

The condition now is somewhat equivalent to the one that prevailed when Jack McAuliffe and Jim Corbett both claimed to the title and each with much pretense.

McAuliffe finally won it after a terrific fight.

A glance at the careers of the great ring gladiators of the past shows the truth of the assertion that fighters, no matter what money they may have accumulated during the period of their success, generally die penniless. Not only the fickle fate, fortune, ceased to smile upon them, but the temptation of a journey, but their purses were often emptied by the desertion of friends and the loss of their money.

After the fight of Sullivan and Gans, the light-weight title in greater measure, Britt, Nelson, Sullivan and Gans are very evenly matched, and any one of the quartet has a right to challenge for the title.

Of course, Gans holds the honor, but does Britt give to him? When he was at that Jimmy lost to Gans on a foul, and at a time when it appeared as though he had been down and out, and Nelson and Sullivan fought great battles against the Prize of the Coast.

The condition now is somewhat equivalent to the one that prevailed when Jack McAuliffe and Jim Corbett both claimed to the title and each with much pretense.

McAuliffe finally won it after a terrific fight.

A glance at the careers of the great ring gladiators of the past shows the truth of the assertion that fighters, no matter what money they may have accumulated during the period of their success, generally die penniless. Not only the fickle fate, fortune, ceased to smile upon them, but the temptation of a journey, but their purses were often emptied by the desertion of friends and the loss of their money.

After the fight of Sullivan and Gans, the light-weight title in greater measure, Britt, Nelson, Sullivan and Gans are very evenly matched, and any one of the quartet has a right to challenge for the title.

Of course, Gans holds the honor, but does Britt give to him? When he was at that Jimmy lost to Gans on a foul, and at a time when it appeared as though he had been down and out, and Nelson and Sullivan fought great battles against the Prize of the Coast.

The condition now is somewhat equivalent to the one that prevailed when Jack McAuliffe and Jim Corbett both claimed to the title and each with much pretense.

McAuliffe finally won it after a terrific fight.

A glance at the careers of the great ring gladiators of the past shows the truth of the assertion that fighters, no matter what money they may have accumulated during the period of their success, generally die penniless. Not only the fickle fate, fortune, ceased to smile upon them, but the temptation of a journey, but their purses were often emptied by the desertion of friends and the loss of their money.

THE WHITE MAN'S PROBLEM IN NEW YORK

CAN CITY WATER CLEANSE CITY SUBWAY DIRT.

"RUSSIA NOT READY FOR PARLIAMENTARY REFORMS"

So Declares Petrovitch Polodnosteff, Procurator General of the Holy Synod, Who Says the Nation Lacks Both Leaders and Education in Local Self-Government—Western Institutions Cannot Be Fitted to a Country Having Its Own Peculiar Needs He Insists—Salvation, He Expects, to Come in Its Time.

"WILL OF THE PEOPLE A FAMILIAR FALSEHOOD."

St. Petersburg, July 22.—The Russian people are not yet ready for parliamentary institutions, declared the procurator general of the Holy Synod, who for two generations has been one of the moving spirits in the Russian government.

This is the view of Constantine Petrovitch Polodnosteff, procurator general of the Holy Synod, who for two generations has been one of the moving spirits in the Russian government.

"Whatever the outcome of the present movement may be, it is not a movement of the people," declared the procurator general.

"The movement certainly indicates a weakening in authority," declared the procurator general.

"The movement certainly indicates a weakening in authority," declared the procurator general.

"The movement certainly indicates a weakening in authority," declared the procurator general.

"The movement certainly indicates a weakening in authority," declared the procurator general.

"The movement certainly indicates a weakening in authority," declared the procurator general.

"The movement certainly indicates a weakening in authority," declared the procurator general.

"The movement certainly indicates a weakening in authority," declared the procurator general.

"The movement certainly indicates a weakening in authority," declared the procurator general.

"The movement certainly indicates a weakening in authority," declared the procurator general.

"The movement certainly indicates a weakening in authority," declared the procurator general.

"The movement certainly indicates a weakening in authority," declared the procurator general.

"The movement certainly indicates a weakening in authority," declared the procurator general.

"The movement certainly indicates a weakening in authority," declared the procurator general.

"The movement certainly indicates a weakening in authority," declared the procurator general.

"The movement certainly indicates a weakening in authority," declared the procurator general.

"The movement certainly indicates a weakening in authority," declared the procurator general.

"The movement certainly indicates a weakening in authority," declared the procurator general.

"The movement certainly indicates a weakening in authority," declared the procurator general.

"The movement certainly indicates a weakening in authority," declared the procurator general.

"The movement certainly indicates a weakening in authority," declared the procurator general.

"The movement certainly indicates a weakening in authority," declared the procurator general.

MOODY REITS WS CRUSADE AGAINST THE BEEF BUSINESS

Attorney General Tells How Cases Were First Brought to the Attention of the Department of Justice, and the Various Steps That Were Taken Which Finally Ended in Indictments Being Returned Against Companies and Individuals—Grand Jury Unadvised, and Received a Perfectly Free Hand in Deliberations.

HOPES TO TRY CASES WITHIN THE PRESENT YEAR.

Nahant, July 22.—The circumstances leading up to the investigation of the combination of beef packers and the present status of the case were explained by Attorney General William H. Moody in a speech at the summer outing of the American public club at Nahant, Mass., today.

To accommodate Mr. Moody's personal plans, the case was postponed to Boston in order that he might leave for Washington this evening, an arrangement which could speak in advance of the dinner.

He, therefore, addressed his audience from the band stand, and was received by a big crowd of Saturday afternoon excursionists in addition to the members of the club.

Mr. Moody's remarks in part were as follows:

"There has been an occasional complaint that upon subjects in which the public naturally takes a keen interest I have, as Attorney General, withheld facts which the people have a right to know. Much of the work of the Department of Justice can only be done effectively when it is done quietly and in secret. It is not easy to draw the line between facts which ought to be made public and those which should be withheld from the public. I have tried to draw the line so that the public interest and the right of the people to know shall be preserved, and I am sure that the public will judge of the conduct of their servants."

PRESIDENT APPROVES

"There has been so much, not unnatural, criticism of the administration toward the proceeding in Chicago, which have resulted in indictments against the packers, that I have concluded that a brief review of the case is warranted."

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

The case was placed in the immediate charge of Mr. Nathan D. Clegg, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Clegg, in turn, placed it in the hands of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, who has been in charge of the case since its inception.

RAILROADS IN THE EASTERN RATES

Grand Trunk Makes Fare From Chicago to New York $16—Will Affect Other Parts of Country.

IMPORTANT DOCKET FOR SOUTHWESTERN BUREAU

Passenger Officials Will Have Busy Meeting at Eureka Springs, Ark., This Week.

An important docket will be disposed of at the meeting of the Southwest Bureau of the Passenger Officials Association, which convenes at the Eureka Hotel at Eureka Springs, Ark., on Tuesday.

According to Chairman J. E. Hannegan of the bureau the meeting will be the most important of the season, and will deal with the most important matters of the day.

The docket is as follows:

St. Louis members will go to Eureka on Monday night and arrive on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. A special session will be held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

The meeting was originally called for July 17, but was postponed because of a strike in the territory which would have prevented the attendance of many of the members.

The docket is as follows:

St. Louis members will go to Eureka on Monday night and arrive on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. A special session will be held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

The meeting was originally called for July 17, but was postponed because of a strike in the territory which would have prevented the attendance of many of the members.

The docket is as follows:

St. Louis members will go to Eureka on Monday night and arrive on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. A special session will be held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

The meeting was originally called for July 17, but was postponed because of a strike in the territory which would have prevented the attendance of many of the members.

The docket is as follows:

St. Louis members will go to Eureka on Monday night and arrive on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. A special session will be held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

The meeting was originally called for July 17, but was postponed because of a strike in the territory which would have prevented the attendance of many of the members.

The docket is as follows:

St. Louis members will go to Eureka on Monday night and arrive on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. A special session will be held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

The meeting was originally called for July 17, but was postponed because of a strike in the territory which would have prevented the attendance of many of the members.

The docket is as follows:

St. Louis members will go to Eureka on Monday night and arrive on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. A special session will be held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

The meeting was originally called for July 17, but was postponed because of a strike in the territory which would have prevented the attendance of many of the members.

The docket is as follows:

St. Louis members will go to Eureka on Monday night and arrive on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. A special session will be held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

The meeting was originally called for July 17, but was postponed because of a strike in the territory which would have prevented the attendance of many of the members.

The docket is as follows:

St. Louis members will go to Eureka on Monday night and arrive on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. A special session will be held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

The meeting was originally called for July 17, but was postponed because of a strike in the territory which would have prevented the attendance of many of the members.

The docket is as follows:

St. Louis members will go to Eureka on Monday night and arrive on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. A special session will be held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

The meeting was originally called for July 17, but was postponed because of a strike in the territory which would have prevented the attendance of many of the members.

The docket is as follows:

St. Louis members will go to Eureka on Monday night and arrive on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. A special session will be held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

The meeting was originally called for July 17, but was postponed because of a strike in the territory which would have prevented the attendance of many of the members.

The docket is as follows:

St. Louis members will go to Eureka on Monday night and arrive on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. A special session will be held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

AMERICANS ARE NOT AS GOOD WRESTLERS AS GIANTS OF EUROPE

The statement may seem a bit exaggerated, but it is the opinion of the best authorities, recently said that there are at least thirty wrestlers in Europe who could defeat any American public was firmly convinced that America was not the production of wrestling in Europe.

For many years the American public was firmly convinced that America was not the production of wrestling in Europe.

The statement may seem a bit exaggerated, but it is the opinion of the best authorities, recently said that there are at least thirty wrestlers in Europe who could defeat any American public was firmly convinced that America was not the production of wrestling in Europe.

For many years the American public was firmly convinced that America was not the production of wrestling in Europe.

The statement may seem a bit exaggerated, but it is the opinion of the best authorities, recently said that there are at least thirty wrestlers in Europe who could defeat any American public was firmly convinced that America was not the production of wrestling in Europe.

For many years the American public was firmly convinced that America was not the production of wrestling in Europe.

The statement may seem a bit exaggerated, but it is the opinion of the best authorities, recently said that there are at least thirty wrestlers in Europe who could defeat any American public was firmly convinced that America was not the production of wrestling in Europe.

For many years the American public was firmly convinced that America was not the production of wrestling in Europe.

The statement may seem a bit exaggerated, but it is the opinion of the best authorities, recently said that there are at least thirty wrestlers in Europe who could defeat any American public was firmly convinced that America was not the production of wrestling in Europe.

For many years the American public was firmly convinced that America was not the production of wrestling in Europe.

The statement may seem a bit exaggerated, but it is the opinion of the best authorities, recently said that there are at least thirty wrestlers in Europe who could defeat any American public was firmly convinced that America was not the production of wrestling in Europe.

For many years the American public was firmly convinced that America was not the production of wrestling in Europe.

The statement may seem a bit exaggerated, but it is the opinion of the best authorities, recently said that there are at least thirty wrestlers in Europe who could defeat any American public was firmly convinced that America was not the production of wrestling in Europe.

For many years the American public was firmly convinced that America was not the production of wrestling in Europe.

The statement may seem a bit exaggerated, but it is the opinion of the best authorities, recently said that there are at least thirty wrestlers in Europe who could defeat any American public was firmly convinced that America was not the production of wrestling in Europe.

For many years the American public was firmly convinced that America was not the production of wrestling in Europe.

TO BUILD COLLEGE PASSENGERS GAIN

Structure to Cost $250,000 Will Be Erected by the Congregation of the Mission—Father Nugent President.

The Reverend Fathers Nugent and Byrne of Chicago, who are building a college for the poor, have just received a large sum of money from the congregation of the Mission.

The Reverend Fathers Nugent and Byrne of Chicago, who are building a college for the poor, have just received a large sum of money from the congregation of the Mission.

The Reverend Fathers Nugent and Byrne of Chicago, who are building a college for the poor, have just received a large sum of money from the congregation of the Mission.

The Reverend Fathers Nugent and Byrne of Chicago, who are building a college for the poor, have just received a large sum of money from the congregation of the Mission.

The Reverend Fathers Nugent and Byrne of Chicago, who are building a college for the poor, have just received a large sum of money from the congregation of the Mission.

The Reverend Fathers Nugent and Byrne of Chicago, who are building a college for the poor, have just received a large sum of money from the congregation of the Mission.

The Reverend Fathers Nugent and Byrne of Chicago, who are building a college for the poor, have just received a large sum of money from the congregation of the Mission.

The Reverend Fathers Nugent and Byrne of Chicago, who are building a college for the poor, have just received a large sum of money from the congregation of the Mission.

The Reverend Fathers Nugent and Byrne of Chicago, who are building a college for the poor, have just received a large sum of money from the congregation of the Mission.

The Reverend Fathers Nugent and Byrne of Chicago, who are building a college for the poor, have just received a large sum of money from the congregation of the Mission.

The Reverend Fathers Nugent and Byrne of Chicago, who are building a college for the poor, have just received a large sum of money from the congregation of the Mission.

The Reverend Fathers Nugent and Byrne of Chicago, who are building a college for the poor, have just received a large sum of money from the congregation of the Mission.

The Reverend Fathers Nugent and Byrne of Chicago, who are building a college for the poor, have just received a large sum of money from the congregation of the Mission.

The Reverend Fathers Nugent and Byrne of Chicago, who are building a college for the poor, have just received a large sum of money from the congregation of the Mission.

The Reverend Fathers Nugent and Byrne of Chicago, who are building a college for the poor, have just received a large sum of money from the congregation of the Mission.

The Reverend Fathers Nugent